The image shows a guitar transcription for the song "Don't Know Why" by Norah Jones, transcribed by thevnuK. The notation is presented on four systems of a single staff each. Each system contains four measures of music, numbered 53 through 66. The notation uses a simplified system where notes are represented by stems with flags, and fret positions are indicated by 'x' marks above the stems. Measure 55 is specifically labeled as the start of the "Verse" and includes an asterisk above the first note. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of measure 66.
